

6 Cherry Ct, Coomera

Offering exceptional value

Located in a safe, cul de sac standing gracefully elevated to catch the breezes, with high ceilings and a light airy feel, this stylish home offers space and versatility. A unique architecturally designed and built by a boutique builder in a well-established estate with a very low body corporate. Executive style home walking distance to Picnic Creek State School and the new St Joseph's private school.

Freshly painted, with a unique open plan layout, with glass doors opening up to undercover patio, decking with spa, and surrounded by mature tropical garden perfect to relax and unwind.

Large main bedroom also opening up to the private spa area, with large ensuite, is separate from all other bedrooms for privacy. Side access provides additional storage or for a trailer.

Perfectly located for ease of living and future capital growth with the new Westfield shopping centre, and future development planned.
